

A Documentary Film by Maya Craig

Water Town follows the current and three former Weed City mayors on their quest to win back the spring water from the corporations they believe are stealing it from them. Quirky art-direction and offbeat humor set the tone for a David and Goliath battle, highlighting the absurdities of wealth inequity and challenging the viewer to consider whether water is a right or a commodity.

November 1, 2017 6:00 pm
The Weed Palace Theater
192 Main Street, Weed, CA

This 23 minute movie is a free, family-friendly event
Maya Craig will be present for questions and answers after the screening
Doors and the Theater Cafe will be open at 5:30 pm